BELLEEK CASTLE

County Mayo, Ballina, Ireland

Belleek Hall at J.K. O'Donnell's is dedicated to Ireland's Belleek Castle. The 500 year old castle still stands today. It was once the home of the Earl of Arran. An "Earl" means lord of king. "Arran" comes from Aran Islands on the west side of Ireland. The huge castle has many rooms filled with Fireplaces and is surrounded by 1,000 acres of woodland.
